

Uchu-house and Internship Program Participation Rules

Uchu-house and internship program refers to pro-bono activities to support spaceplane development and space business development of PD AeroSpace, LTD. (PDAS). Participation rules are shown below.

- 1) Please read and acknowledge Uchu-house and internship program prospectus and activities before participation.

【Prospectus】

We are looking forward to energize aerospace industry by investigating new modes of research, building business model, and revolutionize development environment through open and high flexibility workspace.

【Purpose of activities and contents】

- Support spaceship development and commercialization
- Support development and operation of related business area

There are many difficulties we have to overcome on our journey to reach alt. 100km. Of course, there are technical difficulties, but we also have to overcome issues in very broad field such as but not limited to legal and insurance. We hope that Uchu-house and internship members will also develop business and projects in the future.

【Participation】

In principle, you will join our activities without any compensations.

However, Uchu-house and intern may receive reimbursement for fees and transportation cost deemed necessary by PDAS when participating in meeting or event upon PDAS' request.

Uchu-house member and intern must not act in any way that is detrimental to their own workplace, corporation, organization, school or other forms of group they belong to (priority on original affiliation). PDAS is not responsible for any trouble that may occur between Uchu-house member and original affiliation.

PDAS will not disclose any private information including but not limited to affiliation and name to third party without prior permission from Uchu-house member or internship student.

- 2) Registration is required prior to participating in Uchu-house and internship program. Please write the following items at designated registration sheet and submit to PDAS.

- Address
- Name
- Date of birth
- Affiliation (university, company, others)
- Contact (phone number and email address)

※Consent form signed by parents or legal guardian required for minors under 20 years of age

- 3) PDAS will conduct assessment based on submitted documents (we will inform result). Please transfer 5,000 JPY registration fee to designated bank account.

※Registration fee is non-refundable.

※Internship program participant does not need to pay registration fee.

- 4) Please write availability on PDAS Google calendar (category: Uchu-house calendar). Please write name and time slot on the title (example: 10:00 Taro Uchu)

- 5) Prohibited behavior

- Anti-social activities and actions that are or may be construed as against public order and morality
- Political activities, proselytizing, and soliciting for multi-level marketing scheme or similar activity

- Taking out common properties without prior authorization
- Disclosing confidential information to third party
- Other actions or behavior deemed inappropriate by PDAS

※Member may be subject to termination and restraining order if found to conduct actions mentioned above or colluded with third party to conduct such actions inside PDAS.

6) PDAS will consider member as inactive when PDAS are unable to determine any work activity and lack of any contact 3 months after registration. Inactive member will be removed from Uchu-house or internship program.

7) Other rules

- Please greet other people (This includes PDAS staff, fellow program participants, visitors and local residences).
- Please actively do 3S*, and return used tools back to original place after use.
*3S: 整理(Seiri)・整頓(Seiton)・清掃(Seiso); Organize, Set in order, and clean up activity respectively
- Please save electricity.
- Please do not leave your belongings in the office.
- Please park your car in designated parking area as specified in 「Activity manual」.
- No fire in the premises. Smoking is allowed on designated smoking area.
- Do not touch any property or equipment without prior authorization from staff.
- Please do not enter the building before contacting us (Please call us when you arrive).
- Report to PDAS staff immediately if you accidentally cause property damage.
- Please take responsibility for your belongings and yourself to avoid any accidents.
- We will be contacting you by e-mail most of the time. Please check your e-mail often and make sure that you can receive e-mails from us. (Please remove @pdas.co.jp from your spam filter.)

Participation rules may be revised without prior notice. Please provide feedback so we can work together to improve participation rules.

We are looking forward to create new form of space development together with every participants. Join us and participate actively together in our journey to reach the stars.

PD AeroSpace, LTD.

〒458-0924

3519 Arimatsu Midori Nagoya Aichi, Japan

TEL 0566-95-8228

E-mail info@pdas.co.jp